Canada Management Team

KIRSTEN SUTTON
Managing Director
SAP Labs Canada

Kirsten Sutton is the managing director of SAP Labs Canada. In this role, she is responsible for inspiring innovation within the Canadian development organization, managing the SAP Labs facilities across Canada, as well as being the external and internal liaison of SAP Labs Canada. As part of her broad scope, Kirsten also manages the nine state-of-the art Executive Briefing Centers around the world, by maximizing their exposure and driving the collaborative potential to help customers derive deep benefits from their partnership with SAP.

With more than 18 years of experience in the technology industry, Kirsten previously served as managing director for SAP Labs Vancouver, the global director of technology development operations for SAP, as well as chair of the Vancouver Leadership Team. She has also served as global director of translation, where she incorporated leading-edge technologies and progressive processes in the centralization of translation services across the organization.

Kirsten is a director on both the board of the Minerva Foundation for BC Women as well as the chair of the British Columbia Technology Industry Association (BCTIA). Kirsten is also a playwright and a French chef, two skills that lend to her artistic and social flair. Kirsten holds a bachelor of arts degree in linguistics and creative writing from Western Washington University, in Bellingham, Washington, and a bachelor of arts degree in English with honors from the University of California at Irvine, in Irvine, California. She is based in the SAP Vancouver office in Vancouver, British Columbia.
