

Chris Saniga
National Vice President, Field Services, SAP Canada

Chris Saniga is National Vice President of Field Services, reporting to Ross Wainwright, Executive Vice President of North America Field Services. In his position, Chris leads the Canadian Consulting line of business primarily advising SAP customers on the best way to successfully implement SAP solutions on time and on budget.

Chris joined SAP Canada in 2004, and has held positions of increasing scope and accountability in the consulting group including, Client Partner followed by Director of Professional Services for Central Region in Canada. As Client Partner, Chris led the design and execution of SAP's pre-package implementation solution for Small to Medium business in Canada.

Chris has been helping customers to implement enterprise applications for the past 10 years combining his SAP and PeopleSoft experience together. Previously his skills have been honed over 15 years in a variety of sales and leadership roles with organizations such as EMC, Hummingbird, and Newcourt Credit Group.

Chris holds a Bachelor of Arts from McMaster University.