

Tracey Arnish
Vice President, Human Resources, SAP Canada

As the Vice President, Human Resources for SAP Canada, Inc., Tracey is a member of the Canadian Executive Leadership Team and is directly responsible for the integrated HR strategy for SAP Canada and its 2,200 employees.

Tracey joined SAP Canada in 2004 and has held roles of increasing responsibility in the Human Resources department. Most recently she was the Senior Director, Human Resources, for the global Technology Development Group.

With over 12 years of progressive Human Resources experience, Tracey has worked in both the private and public sector with organizations such as Air Canada, Translink, the Vancouver Canucks and the British Columbia Transmission Corporation.

Passionate about building an organization that attracts and retains the best talent, Tracey brings focus to developing a culture that enables the achievement of the strategic business plans and supports colleagues in achieving their career best.

Tracey holds a Master's Degree in Business Administration, with a Bachelor's Degree in Commerce.