

NET310: ABAP Web Dynpro

Prerequisites:

- * Essential:
 - > A sound knowledge of ABAP, particularly of the material covered in the courses
 - > BC400 ABAP Workbench Foundations and
 - > BC401 ABAP Objects

Course Objectives:

- * To discuss the role of ABAP Web Dynpro with regard to SAP's UI strategy
- * To develop ABAP Web Dynpro-based applications

Target Group:

- * Developers and consultants who want to create applications based on the ABAP Web Dynpro programming model.
- * Project managers who want to learn about the capabilities of ABAP Web Dynpro.

Contents:

- * Web Dynpro component architecture
- * Create and use Web Dynpro controllers
- * Data storage in Web Dynpro components: context
- * Navigation and data transfer
- * Definition of the Web Dynpro user interface
- * Internationalization
- * Define and send messages
- * Input help
- * Changing context and UI at runtime
- * Connecting components
- * Integrating the SAP List Viewer (ALV)
- * Portal integration
- * Configuring and personalizing

System Information:

- * NW 2004S

Notes:

- * Please note that Web Dynpro for ABAP is only available from SAP NetWeaver 2004s.

Course Dates

April 9-13, 2007	SAP Toronto	English	3875.00 CAD
June 25-29, 2007	SAP Ottawa	English	3875.00 CAD

Taxes not included in price

TO REGISTER, PLEASE CALL CENTRAL REGISTRATION AT POUR VOUS INSCRIRE, TÉLÉPHONEZ LE CENTRE D'APPELS AU
1.888.777.1727

VISIT US AT | VISITEZ NOUS AU
WWW.SAP.COM/CANADA/EDUCATION

